The Rod and Line is a peaceful park, situated in Croft (approximately 5 miles from Skegness).

It is a picturesque, secluded place to stay, an ideal place to relax and appreciate the countryside. The park hosts only static caravans and has a very large fishing lake – one of the largest on-site lakes in the area.

The nearest market town is Wainfleet (approximately 3-4 miles away). Here you can find traditional pubs for a drink or bite to eat, shops and the Magdalen Museum. Wainfleet is approximately 7 miles from Skegness.

WAINFLEET

Croft is a small parish situated just off the main A52 trunk road between Boston and Skegness. It is approximately halfway between Wainfleet and Skegness (Skegness is only 4 miles away). Croft is the ideal location for peace and tranquillity with local traditional pubs and country restaurants – very popular for their delicious food! Croft has its own go-cart track which attracts day visitors to the village.

There is a hourly bus service along the A52.
